Tasting Notes

Sonoma Valley is a special place that is also known as The Valley of the Moon. This romantic name comes from the fact that the sub-appellation is protected by two mountain ranges, the Mayacamas to the east and the Sonoma Mountains to the west. The result is a unique terroir that delivers some of the most expressive and beautiful Pinot Noir's in the world. Luck you!

This is a big fella but retains elegance and balance throughout. Bing cherry, red raspberry, and dried rose petal aromas are complemented by flavors of dried cherries and allspice. Elegant tea-like tannins complement a long and sophisticated finish in this massive Sonoma Valley Pinot Noir.
